Neelabh Rai, Independent Cyber Security Researcher, Cyber Cops, India

Neelabh, familiar in cyberspace as Neelabh Rai, is an Indian, born in 1984. He is an engineering graduate in IT and he has Diploma in Indian Cyber Law. He has received training in Network Security and Ethical Hacking and is a Certified Information Security Expert from IADL UK. He is also a Certified Cyber Crime Investigator and trained in Cyber Warfare and Defence from ASCL. He is trained as an Incident Handler by EC-Council and is an Associate Member (lifetime) of IETE - India, a member of International Cyber Threat Task Force. He is also a member of Internet Society – Delhi Chapter and Global Chapter. In January 2011, Neelabh founded CYBER COPS India which is a testimony to his passionate and undiminished interest in cyberspace. It is an initiative to help all digital citizens stay safer and feel more secure online by providing Comprehensive Online Proactive Security with an access to global trustworthy security products / technology / solutions in Indian Cyberspace. As an independent Cyber Security Researcher, he had authored four internationally acclaimed research papers. Two of these relate to typosquatting, scareware and cyber hypnotism and are published in Advanced Research Series in MacMillan Publication, with another selected for publication in an International Journal.