

Brigadier General Marek Adamczyk, Adviser, Government Centre for Security, Polish Border Guard

Brigadier General Marek Adamczyk has been in his current role as an advisor to the Government Centre for Security with the Polish Border Guard since 2005. He received his General Staff Officer's Diploma in 1995, attending the Postgraduate School of the European Integration and International Security at the Technical Military Academy (WAT), Warsaw in 1999, and then was promoted to Colonel in 2002. He completed the Supreme Staff Officers' Course in 2003 and the National Defence Course in 2004, and he has an MA from the Academy of Internal Affairs. Throughout his career in the Border Guard he has served in the Border Control Station of the Warsaw International Airport; the BG HQ in various management positions, including Director of the International Cooperation and European Integration Bureau and Director of the Border Department; Counsellor – BG LO in the Embassy of Poland in Brussels; Counsellor in the Permanent Representation of Poland to the EU in Brussels; and Adviser in the BG HQ. In January 2012 he was seconded to the Government Centre for Security (RCB) to be employed in an advisory capacity and was assigned the task of coordinating EU / international cooperation on behalf of the RCB.